FUNDING TO DANCE PROGRAMS, 1999-00

- In 1999-00, the Canada Council for the Arts provided grants worth $12.1 million to dance in Canada.
- Due to the collaborative nature of dance, Canada Council funding is awarded primarily to dance companies, collectives, and organizations as opposed to individuals. Grants to dance organizations totaled $11.4 million in 1999-00, while grants to individuals artists comprised $766,363. With this $766,363 in funds, a total of 57 dance artists received grants to further their careers as emerging, mid-career, established and aboriginal artists, while 70 travel grants to professional artists were awarded.
- Organizational funding assists a wide variety of dance organizations, collectives and companies to create, produce, tour and present new Canadian dance works. In 1999-00, a large percentage of organizational funding was disseminated through the creation/production in dance program. With a budget of $7.6 million, the program helps fund Canadian dance institutions such as the National Ballet of Canada and the Royal Winnipeg Ballet, as well as companies such as the Kokoro Dance Company and Mascal Dance. The dance touring and dance dissemination programs each received approximately $1 million in funding in 1999-00.
- Funding to dance comprised 11.3% of Canada Council funding to the arts in 1999-00. In terms of funding allocations, the dance budget of $12.1 million is mid-range, with dance receiving more funding than media and inter-arts, but significantly less funding than Council's other performing arts disciplines of music and theatre (that receive $21 and $19.8 million respectively.)
- Funding to dance organizations and artists is widely dispersed across the country in 57 different cities and communities. However, a significant percentage of funding is concentrated in two Canadian centres featuring prominent and internationally recognized dance communities. Montréal received $4.4 million in Canada Council dance funding, while Toronto dance artists and organizations also received almost $1.4 million. The city of Winnipeg is emerging as a vital centre of dance activity, with $628,160 in Council funds awarded to dancers and organizations in the city in 1999-00.

FINANCEMENT DES PROGRAMMES DE DANSE POUR L'ANNÉE 1999-00

- En 1999-00, le Conseil des arts du Canada a octroyé 12,1 millions de dollars en subventions au milieu canadien de la danse professionnelle.
- En raison du caractère de collaboration lié à la danse, le Conseil accorde principalement le financement aux compagnies, aux collectifs ou aux organismes, plutôt qu'aux particuliers. Le total des subventions accordées, en 1999-00, aux organismes de danse, a été de 11,4 millions de dollars, alors que celles attribuées individuellement à des artistes, pour la même année, totalisaient 766 363 $. Cette somme de 766 363 $ a été répartie, sous forme de bourses, entre 57 artistes du milieu de la danse, ce qui leur a permis de faire avancer leur carrière, soit comme artistes de la relève, soit comme artistes à mi-carrière, soit comme artistes établis ou comme artistes autochtones et sous forme de subventions de voyage à 70 artistes professionnels.
- Le financement organisationnel vient en aide à une grande variété d'organismes, de collectifs ou de compagnies de danse, leur permettant ainsi de créer de nouvelles œuvres chorégraphiques canadiennes, de les produire et de les présenter en tournée. En 1999-00, une large part du financement organisationnel a été investie dans le volet création et production du programme de danse. Le budget de 7,6 millions de dollars du programme permet de financer tant des institutions canadiennes comme le Ballet national du Canada et le Ballet royal de Winnipeg que des compagnies comme la Kokoro Dance Company et la Mascal Dance. Les programmes de diffusion et de tournées ont reçu chacun environ 1 million de financement, en 1999-2000.
- Le financement du milieu de la danse a compté pour 11,3% de l'investissement du Conseil dans les arts en 1999-00. En regard de la répartition financière, le budget de 12,1 millions de dollars consacré à la danse se situe dans la moyenne. En effet, le Conseil a financé la danse dans une plus grande mesure que les arts médiatiques et l'interdisciplinarité. Toutefois, ce financement est beaucoup moindre que celui des autres arts d'interprétation que sont la musique et le théâtre, lesquels ont reçu respectivement 21 millions et 19,8 millions de dollars.
- Le financement des organismes et des artistes du milieu de la danse est largement réparti dans tout le pays soit, dans 57 villes ou collectivités diverses. Cependant, deux villes canadiennes, où se retrouvent les troupes de danse les plus en vue et les plus connues mondialement ont reçu une proportion considérable de ce financement : Montréal a obtenu 4,4 millions de dollars et les artistes et les compagnies de danse de Toronto en ont reçu presque 1,4 millions de dollars. Winnipeg est en train de devenir un centre incontournable de la danse professionnelle : la subvention de 628 160 $ qui a été remise à ses danseurs et à ses organismes de danse en 1999-00 en témoigne.
