Prix de Rome in Architecture for Emerging Practitioners

Follow these three steps to apply for this prize:
Step 1	Read the Prize Guidelines for details about the purpose of the prize, who and what is eligible, prize amount, application assessment process and criteria, etc.
Step 2	Read the Important Information section. If you still have questions about the prize or the application process, contact the program officer below.
Step 3	Complete all sections of the attached application form . Be sure to use the Checklist (Part D of the form) to confirm that you have completed all relevant sections of the form and have included all required support material.

The Canada Council is committed to equity and inclusion, and encourages applications and nominations from culturally diverse, Deaf, disability and official language minority artists, groups and organizations. The Canada Council recognizes and affirms the Aboriginal and treaty rights of the Indigenous peoples of this land and encourages applications and nominations from First Nations, Inuit and Métis individuals, groups, and organizations in all its programs. Measures are in place in all programs to support these commitments.

Deadline

1 October 2019

Your completed application form and all required support material must be postmarked on or before the deadline date. If this date falls on a weekend or statutory holiday, the deadline moves to the next business day.

The Canada Council will not accept applications postmarked after the deadline date, incomplete applications, or those submitted by fax or email.

GUIDELINES

Prize Description	The Canada Council Prix de Rome in Architecture for Emerging Practitioners is awarded to a recent graduate of a Canadian school of architecture who demonstrates exceptional potential in contemporary architectural design. The prize recipient will have the opportunity to broaden his or her knowledge of contemporary architecture culture by visiting a selection of works of architecture. The recipient will also be able to expand her or his professional skills through an internship at an internationally acclaimed architectural firm, anywhere in the world. Applicants must define a program of work and related travels. The project can involve multiple trips to a number of destinations spread over a one-year period. Upon returning to Canada, the recipient must share his or her experience through public conferences, publications and/or exhibitions.
Eligibility	Eligible applicants To apply for this prize, you must: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • be a Canadian citizen or have permanent resident status, as defined by Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada • have received a professional Bachelor or Master degree from a Canadian school of architecture that is certified by the Canadian Architectural Certification Board within 14 months prior to the deadline for submitting applications • be recommended by the director of the school of architecture that issued the degree.
Prize Amount	The prize is $34,000, to contribute towards the costs of the proposed program of work and related travels, and of the proposed public presentation.
Application Assistance	Funds are available to pay for services to individuals who experience disability-related barriers within the application/nomination or final reporting processes of Canada Council programs. Individuals who are Deaf, have disabilities or who are living with mental illness, may apply for funding to contribute to costs for services to assist them specifically in completing a prize application, a prize nomination or in submitting a final report. Please submit your request at least 4 weeks prior to a deadline. Contact the officer responsible for this prize by phone or e-mail. For more information, please consult our website: canadacouncil.ca/commitments/equity/application-assistance
Access Support	Access Support provides supplementary support to individual applicants who are Deaf, have disabilities or who are living with mental illness, as well as Deaf and disability arts groups and organizations. Funds are available to recipients who identify specific disability-related supports that are needed to carry out their proposed activities. For more information, please consult our website: canadacouncil.ca/funding/strategic-funds/access-support

Assessment of ApplicationsAssessment process

Peer evaluation is fundamental to the Canada Council's decision-making process. Eligible applications will be evaluated by a peer assessment committee, composed of experienced individuals who are recognized as professional artists by their peers. Committee members will also be selected with consideration to fair representation of artistic specializations, gender, generations, Canada's two official languages, Indigenous peoples, and the cultural and regional diversity of Canada.

All the peer assessment committee recommendations are final.

Assessment Criteria

The peer assessment committee will evaluate your application based on the following criteria:

- artistic merit of your architectural projects
- quality of the proposed program of work and its relevance to your artistic and professional development

Voluntary Self-Identification form (see the attached form)

If you do not have an account in the Canada Council's grant application portal, you are encouraged to fill out the attached Voluntary Self-identification form to help the Canada Council determine whether its programs and services are reaching a diverse and wide range of Canadian artists, as intended. The information that you provide will not be used to assess the eligibility or the merit of your application.

Voluntary Self-Identification

The Canada Council for the Arts encourages you to complete this voluntary self-identification form to help determine whether our programs and services are reaching a diverse range of Canadian artists. Anyone applying to the Canada Council participating on a peer assessment committee or being nominated or accepting a prize is invited to complete this form.

The Canada Council aims to support a vital and diverse arts ecology that enriches the lives of Canadians, and equity is a critical means to achieve this. All citizens deserve to benefit from a vibrant, accessible and pluralistic arts sector, in which all creative expressions have the same chance to flourish.

Please do not complete this form if you are already registered with the Canada Council Portal. In that case, you have already had the opportunity to answer our questions.

Please complete this revised form even if you have provided self-ID information in the past.

Completion of this form is entirely voluntary. The Canada Council may use the information collected below in order to increase equity of access to the grants and other opportunities, and to ensure that these opportunities reach groups which represent Canada's diverse artistic community. This information may also be used to evaluate the outreach efforts of the Canada Council and for other research purposes.
