1.0 Overview of Canada Council funding to Quebec in 2006-07

- In 2006-07, the Canada Council for the Arts provided grants totalling over $44.5 million to artists and arts organizations in Quebec.
- In addition to grants, $3.5 million in payments was provided to 4,959 authors through the Public Lending Right program in 2006-07.<sup>1</sup> This brings the total amount of Canada Council funding to Quebec to $48.0 million.
- The Canada Council awarded $7.4 million in grants to 689 artists and $37.1 million in grants to 707 arts organizations in 2006-07.
- Grants were awarded to artists and arts organizations in Quebec in dance, inter-arts, media arts, music, theatre, visual arts and writing and publishing. In 2006-07, the largest amount of funding went to writing and publishing ($8.0 million), followed closely by theatre ($7.8 million) and music ($7.5 million).
- 5,337 applications from Quebec artists and arts organizations were submitted to the Canada Council in 2006-07, representing 34.1% of all applications received.
- Funding to artists and arts organizations in Montreal totaled $32.7 million, comprising 73.5% of the total funding going to the province. Quebec City received $4.6 million in funding, representing 10.4% of total funding. 180 additional communities in Quebec received 16.1% of the province's funding for a total of $7.2 million.
- In 2006-07, Quebec artists received 34.9% of Canada Council funding to artists, and Quebec arts organizations received 31% of the funding to arts organizations. In total, Quebec artists and arts organizations received 31.6% of Canada Council funding. In comparison, the province makes up 21.1% of Canadian artists,<sup>2</sup> and 23.9% of the Canadian population.<sup>3</sup>
- As a result of the increase to the Canada Council's parliamentary appropriation (for the fiscal years 2006-07 and 2007-08) announced in the federal budget of May 2006, 172 arts organizations in Quebec received $9.6 million over a two year period as part of the Supplementary Operating Funds Initiative.
- In 2006-07, 253 Quebec artists and arts professionals served as peer assessors, of which 84.2% were Francophone, and 15.8% were Anglophone, making up 32.5% of all peer assessors.

2.0 Statistical highlights about the arts in Quebec<sup>4</sup>

- Quebec's 27,600 artists represent 0.7% of the provincial labour force.
- Montreal has an artistic concentration (1.9%) that is more than double the Canadian average of 0.8%, ranking the city third among large Canadian cities.
- 36% of the province's artists reside in Montreal, compared with 14% of the province's overall labour force. In terms of the absolute number of artists, the City of Montreal (10,100) is second in Canada, behind the City of Toronto (21,000) and ahead of the City of Vancouver (7,300).
- Verdun (1.3%), Quebec City (1.0%) and Sainte-Foy (0.9%) also have an artistic concentration that is above the Canadian average of 0.8%. Verdun is tied for sixth among large Canadian cities, while Quebec City is tied for tenth.
- There was very significant growth in the arts in many large Quebec cities between 1991 and 2001, including LaSalle (47%), Verdun (33%), Saint-Hubert (30%), Beauport (25%) and Laval (25%).
- Relative to overall labour force growth, growth in the arts labour force was highest in Verdun: over 23 times the growth in the overall local labour force. In Montreal, the growth in the arts labour force was over six times the growth in the city's overall labour force.
- Among large Quebec cities, artists' average earnings are highest in Montreal ($26,200, the tenth-highest level in Canada) and in Longueuil ($26,100, the 11th-highest level in Canada).
- Montreal artists have the lowest earnings gap relative to all local workers among large Canadian cities (7%). The earnings gap is 14% in Longueuil, tied for the third-lowest level in Canada.
- Quebecers spent a total of "$5.1 billion on cultural goods and services in 2005, or 2.9% of total consumer spending in the province, the lowest such percentage of all Canadian provinces. The $5.1 billion in consumer spending on culture is just more than double the $2.3 billion spent on culture in Quebec by all levels of government in 2003/04. This is the lowest consumer-to-government spending ratio of all the provinces. On a per capita basis, Quebecers' cultural spending ranks ninth in the country at $706 per resident."<sup>5</sup>

The Canada Council supports the work of culturally diverse arts organizations. In 2006-07, some of the Quebec organizations receiving funding were:

Organization	Community	Total funding
Black Theatre Workshop	MONTREAL	$76,000
Cercle d'expression artistique Nyata Nyata	MONTREAL	$95,450
Teesri Duniya Theatre	MONTREAL	$79,700

Examples of Canada Council funding in Quebec<sup>6</sup>

The Canada Council supports the endeavours of professional artists and arts organizations through its programs. The following selection illustrates the scope of the activities supported by the Canada Council in Quebec.

In 2006-07 Samuel Blais, a young jazz musician from Montreal, received a $20,000 grant through the Music section to pursue his studies in the Master of Music Program in Jazz Alto Saxophone at the Manhattan School of Music in New York. Blais, a first-time grant applicant and recipient, was also awarded a $5,000 J.B.C. Watkins Award, a fellowship for professional Canadian artists in music, architecture, theatre and media arts pursuing graduate studies outside Canada. Having completed a Bachelors degree in Jazz Performance at McGill University in 2004, Blais will continue to study under world renowned saxophonists in New York and advance his personal project, the Samuel Blais Quartet.

Montreal marionettist Claude Rodrigue received a $1,000 grant through the Theatre section to take part in the International Puppet's Feast (El Festín de los muñecos '06) from June 5 to 10 in Guadalajara, Mexico. During the festival Rodrigue animated a workshop on marionette making and was invited to present La Crise, a show for which he designed and created marionettes. In his final report Rodrigue wrote that the 25 interns who participated in the workshop were enthusiastic and will use the techniques they acquired in other artistic and professional endeavours. Rodrigue was a first-time grant applicant and recipient and hopes this is the stepping stone for future Canadian/Mexican cultural adventures.

The Native Friendship Centre of Montréal's Inter-Tribal Youth Centre was awarded a $20,000 grant through the Assistance to Aboriginal Traditional Visual Arts Forms program for a series of workshops that provided urban youth with hands-on experience in making snowshoes, cradle boards, drums, birch-bark works, etc. A series of seven weekend-long workshops took place from February to April 2007 and were animated by Pinoc, a master craftsman from Kitigan-zibi, Quebec with the assistance of Algonquin artist Nadia Myre. The workshops not only allowed youth to learn traditional Algonquin woodwork but will also provide them with the opportunity to pass along their skills to peers in follow-up workshops led by youth participants.

Aline Apostolska received a 2006/2007 Travel Grant to Professional Writers in the amount of $1,500 to travel from Montreal to Skopje, Republic of Macedonia in May 2006 to participate in the promotion of two of her books: Tourmente and Les Grandes Aventurières, which she translated into Macedonian. She then went to Ankara, Turkey to read a short story and give a presentation entitled Short Stories from Far North at a panel on Multiculturalism, Cultural Heritage and Women Writers at the 10th Ankara Short Story Days festival from June 1 to 5, 2006.

As the recipient of a long-term grant (2005 to 2007) totalling $64,000 from the Aboriginal Peoples Production Project Grants in Dance, Mohawk choreographer Gaétan Gingras, a resident of Chambly, has been developing two theatrical dance pieces. The title of his project is Eastern Breeze and will consist of My Father Told Me, a work that explores “questions that arise from a search for identity” and Together, a dance created with Aboriginal theatre students at the National Theatre School in Montreal, where Gingras was teaching during the spring of 2006.

Quebecois composer Denis Dion received a $4,900 Grant for Specialized Music Sound Recording to create an album entitled Scènes de forêts. Based in Saint-Louis-de-Blandford, Dion initiated the project, which consists of three compilations; Scènes de l'autre forêt (2005) by Gilles Bellemare, Waldszenen, op. 82 (1849) by Robert Schuman and Promenades (2005) by Dion, all of which were played by pianist Denise Trudel. Of the compilation, Réjan Beaucage, a reviewer for La Scena Musicale, wrote that the ensemble is a journey of styles that is so enjoyable you will never be bored with it.<sup>7</sup>

The Festival interculturel du conte de Montréal (Montreal Intercultural Storytelling Festival) received a $1,000 grant from the Audience and Market Development Travel Grants program to meet and work with Ezzeddine Gannoun, the founder of the Centre arabo-africain de formation et recherche théâtrale, Tunisia in April 2006. The purpose of the meeting was to assess the feasibility of the creation and collaboration of the Tunisian Intercultural Storytelling Festival and its collaboration with France and Canada, where francophone intercultural storytelling festivals already exist.

As a recipient of the 2006 Governor General's Literary Awards in Children's Literature (Illustration), Rogé (Roger Girard) of Montreal was awarded $15,000. His illustrations for the book entitled Le gros monstre qui aimait trop lire (Taming Horrible Harry), written by Lili Chartrand, animate the story of a monster that enjoys scaring children, until one day a young girl leaves behind a book which he tries to eat, then play with and finally learns to read with the help of his dragon friend. The jury said that Rogé is a “talented colourist and his generous brush strokes introduce us to a host of characters – huge and small, and always irresistible!”

Montreal's Maison de la poésie, a non-profit organization that promotes poetry, received a $10,000 grant from the Audience and Market Development Travel Grants program to conduct a promotional tour of Quebecois poetry in France from June 6 to 19, 2006. A group of 14 Quebecois poets and editors participated in the tour and read poetry, performed and sold published works in Grenoble, Saint-Martin-d'Hères, Villefontaine, Lyon, Rennes, Compiègne and Paris. The poets also had several opportunities to present their show La ville corps et âmes, an elaborate evening of poetry reading and performance.

A 2006/2007 Travel Grant to Media Artists in the amount of $2,000 was awarded to filmmaker Hunt Hoe, who is originally from Malaysia and is now based in Montreal. The grant will allow Hoe to present his film 1st Bite at the Chennai International Film Festival in Chennai, India, from December 15 to 22, 2006. 1st Bite was filmed in both Canada and Thailand and follows a “Canadian chef’s search for the Zen of Cooking that leads to the discovery of the secrets of food, love and spiritual mysteries.” Of the film Hoe wrote: “1st Bite is an attempt to recount the many fading traditional spiritual tales that I grew up with in Malaysia. The East and West structure reflects the reality of my existence.”

Artist collective Interaction Qui Ltée, located in Alma, received an Artists and Community Collaboration program grant in the amount of $20,000 to create La Grande marche des tacons-sites (Long Hike of the Parr Sites) from May to October 2007 in the Saguenay-Lac Saint Jean region. The project is “an artistic work in progress aimed at superimposing a supernatural landscape on the natural landscape.” The artists will create 60 sculptures of Atlantic salmon (parr) called Tacons-sites (Parr Sites), every five kilometres along the periphery of a superimposed emblem. When complete, a 140 x 40 kilometre outline of a parr will be visible using various imaging methods.

The Canada Council’s Visual Arts section awarded Montreal glass artist Michèle Lapointe with her first grant in the amount of $19,000 in 2006-07. Lapointe will use the funds to resolve technical and aesthetic problems she has encountered when transferring photographic images onto thick pieces of glass. This will help her realise her original inspiration – monumental representations of dew drops executed in glass and covered in actual images of nature. As they were designed for interior or exterior display, Lapointe wants her sculptures to meet the standards of durability required by engineers and architects.

Montreal architecture firm atelier BUILD was awarded $10,000 through the Assistance to Practitioners, Critics and Curators in Architecture program in 2006-07 to undertake a digital modeling and photographic documentation project of their work for a publication by Tuns Press. Architects Michael Carroll and Danita Rooyakkers of atelier BUILD will hire a recent architecture graduate to create digital models and photographer Alain Laforest to document all completed projects. The book, which will focus on three successful young architecture offices in Canada, will feature several of atelier BUILD’s projects and a text focusing on their design philosophy.

Through the Visual Arts section, a Supplementary Operating Funds Initiative program grant of $70,000 was awarded to the Canadian Centre for Architecture (CCA) in 2006-07. With this grant the CCA will undergo two projects over two years; the first will focus on the redesign of its website, including graphic appearance, structural organization and content management. The second will be the production of a children’s graphic novel based on the 2007 exhibition entitled 1973: The Black Hole, a thematic look at the social, economic and political implications of the 1970’s oil crisis.

A $10,000 grant through the Assistance to Professional Canadian Contemporary Art Dealers program was issued to Montreal’s Galerie Roger Bellemare to participate in the Toronto International Art Fair from October 25 to 29, 2007. In Toronto the Galerie displayed medium-sized works, portfolios and images of available works to potential collectors. A catalogue of the work of Michael Merrill was also produced by Galerie Roger Bellemare to accompany his first solo exhibition in March 2007. Merrill’s early works earned him positive recognition while recent paintings and drawings depicting spaces where art is exhibited and prepared has garnered positive reviews.

Through the Aboriginal Peoples Collaborative Exchange: National program the Institut culturel et éducatif montagnais received a $30,000 grant to organize the Fifth National Aboriginal Art Administrators and Funders Gathering (NAAAFG) from June 8 to 10, 2006 in Sept-Îles. The NAAAFG was created in 2003 by the Manitoba Arts Council and the Canadian Provincial Art Funders to “provide an opportunity for Aboriginal program coordinators and officers to network, discuss issues and strategize.” In 2006 the theme of Land, Language, Cultures and the Arts: Mapping the Relationships was chosen to “develop a more encompassing approach to Aboriginal arts administration, capacity building and funding.” The Gathering had simultaneous translations in Innu, French and English.

Outremont interdisciplinary artist Jean Ranger was awarded $20,000 from Inter-Arts Program: Creation/Production Grants to create and develop a new interdisciplinary performance in Montreal from March 2007 to December 2008. The performance is being created through Mindroots, a creative laboratory that Ranger began in 1997 and through which he collaborates with artists from different art backgrounds. Ranger’s inspiration for his new project lies in the mixture of the contemporary human experience from three cultural realities the West, the East and the South and how they are expressed through human relationships, nature and technology.

The Coleman & Lemieux Inc. dance company of Saint-Laurent received support through the Artist and Community Collaboration Fund toward the Manitoba Project and the Gros Morne Project in the amount of $43,000. The company also received a Dance Touring Grant in the amount of $40,000 to support the tour of the Kudelka/Taylor Project through Quebec and Ontario in 2006-07. During the tour, which took place from June to September 2006, Coleman & Lemieux Inc. conducted workshops and residences in almost all cities and towns they visited, developing links with the communities and establishing networks and partners for future projects.

4.0 Overall arts and culture funding in Quebec by all three levels of government<sup>8</sup>

- Arts and culture funding to Quebec from all three levels of government stood at $2.3 billion in 2003-04 (the latest year of overall data from Statistics Canada).
- Federal funding made up the largest share at 50.5% (about $1.2 billion) followed by provincial funding at 31.4% ($726.8 million) and municipal funding at 18.1% ($419.6 million).
- Federal government cultural funding to Quebec totalling $1.2 billion is primarily concentrated (85%) in broadcasting, heritage resources (historic parks/sites and nature/provincial parks) and film and video. The remaining 15% of funding is allocated to areas including literary arts ($40 million), performing arts ($38.0 million), multidisciplinary arts ($28.5 million) and libraries ($28.2 million). In the comparable year (2003-04), Canada Council funding accounted for 3.3% of all federal cultural spending in Quebec.
- Between 1999-00 and 2003-04, federal cultural spending in Quebec increased from $916 million to $1.2 billion (an increase of 28%). During the same time period, Canada Council funding in Quebec increased from $31.8 million to $39.0 million.
- The largest part of provincial government funding is concentrated in three areas: libraries, heritage resources and performing arts (59% or $431.2 million). However, funding is also allocated by the provincial government to broadcasting ($96.4 million), and multidisciplinary arts ($53.4 million).
