1.0 Overview of Canada Council funding to Manitoba in 2008-09

- In 2008-09, the Canada Council for the Arts provided grants totaling over $6.3 million to the arts in Manitoba.
- In addition to grants, $186,279 in payments was provided to 406 Manitoba authors through the Public Lending Right program.¹ This brings the total amount of Canada Council funding to Manitoba to over $6.5 million.
- In 2008-09, the Canada Council awarded $590,598 in grants to 44 Manitoba artists and $5.7 million to 74 Manitoba arts organizations.
- Grants were awarded to artists and arts organizations in Manitoba in each artistic discipline – dance, interdisciplinary and performance art, media arts, music, theatre, visual arts and writing and publishing. In 2008-09, the largest amount of funding went to dance ($1.5 million). Music received the second largest amount of funding ($1.4 million), followed by theatre ($1.0 million).
- 401 applications from Manitoba artists and arts organizations were submitted to the Canada Council in 2008-09, representing 2.6% of the total number of applications received.
- Funding to artists and arts organizations in Winnipeg totalled $6.0 million, comprising 95.4% of the total funding going to the province. Onanole received over $96,000 in funds, while Brandon received $78,300. A total of 7 additional communities in Manitoba received $114,000, or 1.8% of all funding to the province in 2008-09.
- In 2008-09, Manitoba artists received 2.5% of Canada Council funding to artists, and Manitoba arts organizations received 4.7% of the funding to arts organizations. In total, Manitoba artists and arts organizations received 4.4% of Canada Council funding. In comparison, the province makes up 2.8% of Canadian artists,² and 3.6% of the Canadian population.³
- A total of 35 artists and arts professionals from Manitoba served as peer assessors in 2008-09, comprising 4.3% of all peer assessors.

¹ The Public Lending Right program provides payments to authors whose books are held in selected Canadian public libraries.

2.0 Statistical highlights about the arts in Manitoba⁴

- In 2006, there were 3,900 artists in Manitoba, representing 0.60% of the overall provincial labour force.
- Between 1991 and 2006, the number of artists in Manitoba increased by 8%. The number of artists increased by 9% between 1991 and 2001, but decreased by 2% between 2001 and 2006.
- In 2006, the median earnings of artists in Manitoba were $11,300, less than half the typical earnings of all Manitoba workers ($24,500).
- In 2006, of nine arts occupation groups, musicians and singers represent the largest group in Manitoba with 1,200 people reporting earnings, followed by artisans and craftspersons (600), authors and writers (500) and visual artists (500).
- Manitobans spent $850 million on cultural goods and services in 2005, which equals 3.3% of total consumer spending in the province. The $850 million in consumer spending on culture is over three times larger than the $260 million spent on culture in Manitoba by all levels of government in 2003-04. On a per capita basis, Manitobans' cultural spending ranks fifth in the country at $809 per resident.
- In 2005, the three most popular cultural and heritage activities in Manitoba were: reading newspapers (86% of the population 15 or older); listening to music on CD's, cassette tapes, DVD audio discs, records, etc. (80%); and watching a video (rented, purchased, VHS or DVD formats) (77%).
- In 2005, 38% of Manitobans 15 or older (350,000 residents) attended a concert or performance by professional artists of music, dance, theatre or opera (excluding cultural festivals). This is just under the Canadian rate of 41%.

Examples of Canada Council funding in Manitoba⁵

The Canada Council supports the endeavours of professional artists and arts organizations through its programs. The following selection illustrates the scope of the activities supported by the Canada Council in Manitoba.

Winnipeg's NAfro Dance Productions was awarded $30,000 through the Production Project Grants in Dance program to create Sauti, an African-contemporary dance production. In Sauti ("voices" in Swahili), the works of two choreographers were presented: Casimiro Nhussi from NAfro Dance and Michele Moss from Calgary. While each choreographer developed movements based on his or her personal dance vocabulary, both participated in community workshops as a way to develop and enhance their dance styles. As a result of the workshops and the presentation of Sauti in October 2008 at the Gas Station Theatre in Winnipeg, NAfro Dance has expanded its audience range.

A $10,500 grant was awarded to David McMillan of Winnipeg through the Assistance to Visual Artists: Project Grants program to return to the Chernobyl Exclusion Zone to photograph Pripyat, a city in the former Soviet Union, which he first visited in 1994. In the aftermath of massive nuclear accident in 1986, Pripyat's various schools, playgrounds, hospitals, and homes remain virtually untouched by civilization. For McMillan, this unique and stimulating location provides the opportunity to investigate the complex relationship between nature and culture, one of his primary photographic interests. The artist hopes that returning to Chernobyl will serve as inspiration to push his creativity and engage new photographic techniques.

The Sarasvati Dramatic Theatre Productions and Repertory Inc received a $2,000 grant from the Visiting Foreign Artists Program to invite Australian playwright Tammy Anderson to conduct theatrical workshops and perform her own creation, I Don't Wanna Play House. During her two-week visit to Winnipeg, the internationally-recognized Koori (an indigenous Australian) conducted a variety of workshops at the Winnipeg FemFest, focusing on storytelling techniques, international indigenous activities, and youth participation. The activities and workshops received positive responses from participating audiences, thus demonstrating the value of international exchange. For Sarasvati Productions, Anderson's visit offered a special opportunity to promote Winnipeg as a vibrant cultural centre and supported its mandate to serve emerging artists and expand the boundaries of theatre.

⁵ Unless otherwise indicated, project descriptions and quotations are drawn from documents in the grant application.

Through the Aboriginal Media Arts Program, Craig Charbonneau Fontaine of Pine Falls, Man., received his first grant of $11,000 to research and create a medium-length documentary on the impact of Aboriginal sports in residential schools. Relying on interviews with Elders, archival film and photographs, as well as scholarly material, Fontaine's project will focus on the dynamics of sport in identity and cultural formation, especially among Aboriginal communities in Canada. While Western forms of sport might appear to be non-Aboriginal pursuits, Fontaine hopes to inform and educate interested audiences on the positive impact of sports on Aboriginal cultures, in both the past and the present. The documentary will be created entirely in the Anishanabe language.

In 2008, Home Routes Inc., a not-for-profit organization based in Winnipeg, received $20,000 through the Music Touring Grants program to support six concert circuits across Canada in folk and roots music. With the grant, Home Routes continued operating four circuits previously created during the 2007 touring season, and also programmed and operated two new circuits reaching Alberta and southern Ontario. Artists that gave concerts included Katherine Wheatley, Bob King, Cameron Latimer and Joel Fafard. Ava Kobrinsky, General Manager of the organization, expressed her sincere gratitude towards the volunteer presenters, the audiences, and the talented musicians who have continually supported Home Routes' programs and concerts. This support has remained critical for the continued recruitment of enthusiastic volunteer presenters, as well as for audience development and organizational growth.

Winnipeg singer, songwriter and violin player Sierra Noble traveled to Richmond Hill, Ont., and performed at the Ontario Contact Presenters Conference on October 24, 2008, with the $1,000 grant she received through the Audience and Market Development Travel Grants: Canada program. Noble has travelled across Canada and internationally, performing all styles of music including Celtic, Métis fiddle music, bluegrass, jazz and world beat, gaining international acclaim. Noble has proven that "preserving culture through music and song is one of the most powerful ways to express oneself." For the young artist, the conference was an excellent forum to present her latest recordings to a diverse network of art presenters, theatre programmers, and media representatives, and served as a unique opportunity to advance her professional career.

As the winner of the 2008 Prix de Rome in Architecture for Emerging Practitioners, Winnipeg's Kelly Nelson Doran received $34,000 to study the impacts of resource development companies on the landscape, infrastructure and urbanism of six industrial communities in Scandinavia. With this endowment, Doran will travel to Iceland, Norway, Sweden, and Finland for an internship at an internationally-recognized architectural firm where he will investigate the economic structure and sustainable development of Northern communities, which could potentially enhance regional practices in Canada. Through these case studies, combined with knowledge acquired in previous architectural research, Doran hopes to gain an understanding of the impact of extreme geographic and economic climates on architecture.

A $500 grant was awarded to Roland Mahé, Artistic Director of Winnipeg (St. Boniface) theatre company Le Cercle Molière, through the Travel Assistance for Theatre Artistic Directors, Administrators and Presenters program to attend two performances in Edmonton. In February 2009, Mahé travelled to Alberta to see Rearview, a one-man show by Gilles Poulin-Denis, and Lentement la beauté by Craig Holzschuh, in hopes of bringing one of the plays to his theatre in the upcoming season. After the performances, Mahé reported that both plays were well-written and superbly-acted, leaving him with the difficult decision of choosing between two wonderful pieces.

First-time applicant, Eritrean Community in Winnipeg Inc. received $20,000 through the Media Arts Project Grants: Development Project Grants and Artists and Community Collaboration Program (ACCP) to produce the Video Art Eritrean Community Project. The project is designed to engage young artists to explore their creative voice through video by articulating their experiences of growing up and navigating between Eritrean and Canadian culture. An organization focused on promoting, fostering, and ensuring the well-being of Eritrean peoples in Manitoba, Eritrean Community launched the project as an opportunity for Eritrean youth to enhance their self-esteem, encourage good citizenship, and validate their experience within their community. For those who continue to arrive from the eastern African country, this initiative serves as an excellent means to share their experiences with a wide Canadian audience.

In 2008-09, the Winnipeg Art Gallery (WAG) received $9,100 through the Acquisition Assistance for Art Museums and Public Galleries program to acquire 11 new contemporary artworks. Since 1912, in accordance with its mandate, the WAG has built and maintained a collection of contemporary works through a broad range of exhibitions, educational programming, and important publications. With the latest acquisition of works by artists such as Maurice Savoie, Ann Mortimer, Keith Campbell, Dominique Rey, Jeff Thomas, and Krisjanis Katkins-Gorseline, the WAG continues to support the development of regional arts communities, while sharing its ever-growing collection with people from Canada and abroad.

A total grant of $20,598 was awarded to Claire Marchand of Winnipeg through the Dance Touring Grants to join Spanish Flamenco guitar prodigy Javier Conde and his group on their first Canadian tour. The tour went through British Columbia, Alberta, Manitoba, Ontario and Quebec from September to October 2008. A Flamenco dancer and choreographer, Marchand performed two major dances, a soleá and an Alegrías, while Conde played an authentic Flamenco repertoire covering a vast time period. Marchand noted that the tour was highly successful in its goals to further develop local and national audiences for flamenco music and dance, while nurturing creative collaborations between Canadian and international artists of a high calibre.

Through the Spoken Word and Storytelling Program, Misipawistik Cree Nation Health Authority received a $6,000 grant to present the first annual Singing Waters Storytelling Gathering in Grand Rapids, Man., in September 2008. The festival marked the celebration of the Cree First Nation's oral traditions, and brought particular focus on Cree worldview, vision, culture, and language. Over a two-day period, participants were encouraged to share and discuss the artistic styles and methods of storytelling, while exploring themes of language, ancestry, hunting, and survival. Upon completion of the inaugural Gathering, organizers noted the success of the event and remain committed to continue developing cultural programming that appeals to young audiences in and around Grand Rapids.

4.0 Overall arts and culture funding in Manitoba from all three levels of government⁶

- Arts and culture funding to Manitoba from all three levels of government stood at $273.2 million in 2006-07 (the latest year of overall data from Statistics Canada).
- Provincial funding made up the largest share at about 48% ($130.7 million) with another 32% ($86.2 million) coming from federal sources. 20% ($56.4 million) of total government expenditures to Manitoba came from municipal sources.
- Federal government cultural funding to Manitoba totalling $86.2 million is primarily concentrated (87%) in three areas – heritage resources (historic parks/sites and nature/provincial parks), broadcasting and performing arts. The remaining 13% is allocated to areas including film and video ($3.6 million), literary arts ($1.7 million) and arts education ($1.1 million). In the comparable year (2006-07), Canada Council funding accounted for 8% of all federal culture spending in Manitoba.
- Between 2003-04 and 2006-07, federal cultural spending in Manitoba increased from $84.4 million to $86.2 million respectively (an increase of 2%). During the same period, Canada Council funding to Manitoba increased from $6.1 million to $6.5 million.
- The largest part of provincial government funding is concentrated in four areas – libraries, heritage resources, multidisciplinary arts and performing arts (94% or $122.1 million). However, funding is also allocated by the provincial government to film and video ($3.3 million), visual arts and crafts ($1.7 million) and arts education ($1.4 million).
